Imports of Certain Orange Juice from Brazil
(WT/DS382)

The United States submits this report in accordance with Article 21.6 of the Understanding on Rules and Procedures Governing the Settlement of Disputes ("DSU").

On 17 June 2011, the Dispute Settlement Body ("DSB") adopted its recommendations and rulings in United States –Anti-Dumping Administrative Reviews and Other Measures Related to Imports of Certain Orange Juice from Brazil (WT/DS382). At that DSB meeting, the United States informed the DSB of its intention to implement the recommendations and rulings of the DSB in connection with this matter. The United States and Brazil agreed that the reasonable period of time for the United States to implement the recommendations and rulings of the DSB would end on 17 March 2012.

On 14 February 2012, the US Department of Commerce published in the Federal Register, 77 FR 8101, a modification to its procedures in order to implement DSB recommendations and rulings regarding the use of "zeroing" in anti-dumping reviews. This modification addresses the findings in this dispute.

On 3 April 2012, Brazil and the United States entered into an "Agreement Regarding Procedures under Articles 21 and 22 of the Dispute Settlement Understanding" in this dispute. The agreement was circulated to Members in document WT/DS382/11 (10 April 2012).

On 14 March 2012, the US International Trade Commission ("ITC") concluded a five-year "sunset" review of the anti-dumping duty order on the products covered in this dispute and made a determination to revoke the order. In accordance with this determination, the US Department of Commerce issued a notice on 20 April 2012 revoking the antidumping duty order. The revocation will be effective as of 9 March 2011. As a result of the revocation, imports of orange juice from Brazil entered on or after 9 March 2011 are not subject to anti-dumping duties. All anti-dumping duty cash deposits on entries on or after that date will be refunded.
